

Let's Be Honest

Doll Skin

Do I make you feel awkward?
Does it look like I care?
Got no filter to show for
So helpless standing there
Take your words, and take your torch
And throw them in the nearest street

Let's be honest, I'm a superhero
Let's be honest, I'm gonna save the day
Let's be honest, don't need no drama
No dramatic display

Do I seem a little strange?
Does it look like I care?
You and I are so different
But it's okay 'cause I wear cute underwear
Throw your rage, and throw your hate
Throw them away, away from me

Let's be honest, I'm a superhero
Let's be honest, I'm gonna save the day
Let's be honest, don't need no drama
No dramatic display

(I'm a superhero
I'm a superhero)
Don't try to run
Don't try to scream

Let's be honest, I'm a superhero
Let's be honest, I'm gonna save the day
Let's be honest, don't need no drama
No dramatic display

Let's be honest, I'm a superhero
Let's be honest, I'm gonna save the day
Let's be honest, don't need no drama
No dramatic display, hey, hey
