

Love Is Dead And We Killed Her

Doll Skin

Walking the streets with a switchblade
With the best pressed suit I own
Got away with it all
Blood boiling to the bone
Who says my business is yours
When you're holding the door
No way he can escape tonight
It's the last time he'll call you a whore

No running back
No changing paths
No fixing whats been shattered
No words exchanged
No time rearranged
No fixing what's been shattered

Did you know I'm a killer
There's no stopping me tonight
Underneath the blackness of the night sky
Did you know I'm a killer
There's no chance for you tonight
You won't escape this bitch named karma
Catch up with you, she'll set it right

Now I've been sick of this for weeks
Got blood lust in my head
At my wits ends it's payback time
For everything you did
Don't hesitate to run away
Now look at those who lost their power
With my new attitude
It's time for revenge honey

No running back
No changing paths
No fixing whats been shattered
No words exchanged
No time rearranged
No fixing what's been shattered

Did you know I'm a killer
There's no stopping me tonight
Underneath the blackness of the night sky
Did you know I'm a killer
There's no chance for you tonight
You won't escape this bitch named karma
Catch up with you, she'll set it right

I see it all in front of me
The demon that lies in between
I'll settle the score
You'll be no more

Did you know I'm a killer
There's no stopping me tonight
Underneath the blackness of the night sky
Did you know I'm a killer

There's no chance for you tonight
You won't escape this bitch named karma
Catch up with you, she'll set it right
