

Six o'clock in the morning, what do I see
I see Ebony she's laughing at me
She's laughing at me
And when the mornings are dreary
She just looks my way
And I know that good times will be
Heading my way
I feel lucky today
Just a small little girl, who's a dreamer
Not very old but with a smile so bold
That you'll know like a shot when you need her
Well life is OK 'cause she makes it that way
Well Ebony can
No one can smile the way that Ebony can
Ebony, Ebony

And when I feel disillusioned
And quite alone
I see her picture and I wanna go home
(want to go home)
So we talk in the phone
Every day is a new day, so much to do
And it's so exciting when you're only just
Two (only just two)
If only you knew
Just a small little girl, who's a dreamer
Not very old but with a smile so bold
That you'll know like a shot when you need her
Well life is OK 'cause she makes it that way

Well Ebony can
No one can smile the way that Ebony can
Ebony, Ebony

No one can smile, the way that Ebony
And she lights up my day
Ebony can, and she smiles away
She's a baby, but Ebony can
And she lights up my day
