

Rose Of My Heart

Dolly Parton

You are my flower, the rose of my heart
You bloom in my garden of love, set apart
From all other flowers, your fragrant so true
Swept up in the heavenly essence of you

Straight from God's garden, my rare, precious bloom;
You fill up my senses, make lovely my room
Heaven has dropped you right here in my arms
To nurture, to cherish, to admire your sweet charms

My angel, my flower, the one I adore
As if I have loved you in lifetimes before
You're my inspiration, my daily sunlight
You are my soulmate, the love of my life

My angel, my flower, forever I'll be
Wherever you want me, what ever you need
My greatest wish is to be where you are
'Cause you are my flower, the rose of my heart

My beautiful flower, rose of my heart
Oh, oh, rose of my heart
Oh, oh, rose of my heart
M-m-m-m, m-m-m, rose of my heart
