

Somebody's Missing You

Dolly Parton

Somebody's missing you
Longs to be kissing you
You'd better listen
You mean all the world to me
You're on somebody's mind
Just almost all the time
Bet you already knew
Somebody's missing you

The days go slowly by
When I'm away from you
I long to see your smile
And feel the warmth of you

I've loved you for so long
But still we feel brand new
At home, inside your arms
Somebody's missing you

Somebody's missing you
Longs to be kissing you
You'd better listen
You mean all the world to me
You're on somebody's mind
Just almost all the time
I hope you miss me too
Somebody's missing you

Last thought before I sleep
First thought when I awake
You're even in my dreams
And I can hardly wait

To hear your voice again
Saying all the things you do
In case you're wondering
Somebody's missing you

Somebody's missing you
Longs to be kissing you
You'd better listen
You mean all the world to me
You're on somebody's mind
Just almost all the time
I know you know I do
Somebody's missing you

In case you're wondering
Somebody's missing you
Really, really, really, really missing you
