

envy

Dom Corleo

I thought it was all a lie, yeah
It all caught me by surprise
You live this life, then you payin' the price (The price)
I don't want no extra shit that come wit' takin' off
I would hate to see my friends try to take me out
'Cause I can tell that they want me gone
I can see the envy in they eyes, yeah
And it ain't hard to find Them obstacles came and them walls I climbed
But on God I think I lost it
I lost it, I lost it
You could rule the world if you try
Don't be afraid of this life
Don't be afraid of this life
Don't be afraid of this life
