

Passcode

Dom Kennedy

She always tryna know my passcode, steady trippin' on my last hoe
Why you wanna go and do all dat, why you wanna go and do all that
She always tryna know my passcode, think I'm fuckin' wit' my last hoe
Why you wanna go and do all dat, why you wanna go and do all that

All the boys make you cry and you end up by yo'self
Lonely and miserable just like everybody else
If you listen close enough you can hear the rain comin'
Type of Fifa score that could make a great husband
I be in the Bay wit' the HBK stuntin', tryna come up a few mill right quick.
We the only ones that keep it real like this
I say "What's been goin' on, you keep actin' real strange."
Went through my cell phone, it ain't much to explain
Black super man, thought you was Lois Lane.
But now I don't even look at you like that
When she call I'm like "Ima hit you right back."

She always tryna know my passcode, steady trippin' on my last hoe
Why you wanna go and do all dat, why you wanna go and do all that
She always tryna know my passcode, think I'm fuckin' wit' my last hoe
Why you wanna go and do all dat, why you wanna go and do all that

She a pimp by blood, not relation
Maybe DM some, then replace them
So miss all that, tell me how you buy all that
When you was all at the table frowned up at P.F. Changs
I was hopin' something was up wit' yo Lo Mein
What's going on, you been actin' kinda strange
I'm startin' to get that same ol' feeling back in my brain
Sayin'...I can't do enough, it's not much time these days for the two of us
Plus you think I'm out here livin' like Lucifer
I ain't gone say no names

She always tryna know my passcode, steady trippin' on my last hoe
Why you wanna go and do all dat, why you wanna go and do all that
She always tryna know my passcode, think I'm fuckin' wit' my last
