

David Lyons

Dominic Fike

Yes, there were signs and times that
You were broken
Long before I met you, whoever tried
To tell you I messed up your better side
Must not mind those times that
You got angry
Long before I messed up your better side
I was your best friend, and you couldn't tell there were times

What are we caught in a time warp here or something?
Twilight zone, maybe? Do-do-do-do
Any martians here want to speak to Mister David Lyons?
Do-do-do-do, do-do-do-do, do-do-do-do
You're a funny guy

I remember once
Didn't think twice, thought it couldn't hurt me
And when it came around
Didn't blink and the world kept turnin'
But you're so pretty, you're so perfect
And I'm so miserable and worth whatever you decide
'Cause that's just how it works for you
But that's not really how it works, does it?
Oh no

There were signs that
Came later on and
Showed up out the blue, but
They all came out of you, yeah

Yeah, there was signs and signals, lies and fibs
In everything like Ryan Reynolds
And if I die, my dying wish is that you find that side you miss
And I miss my psychiatrist, you psycho
So don't try no shit like
Calling me a codependent, cohabitating, collaborating with the other team
Back it up with real science, what's a gaslighter?
I'm a human being, not a grill appliance
At a standstill and I'm still tryin'
And it's futile
It's been way more than a few times
I mean, I would understand like two times, but I would understand, I would understand, but you gotta understand

There were signs that
Came later on and
Showed up out the blue, but
They all came out of you, yeah
There were signs that
Came later on and
Showed up out the blue, but
They all came out of you, yeah

Well, you're so honest
But in a bad way
Because I know
Before you tell me

Listenin' to language
Mixing with your body
How didn't I see it all this time?
