So crazy
When you met me I was scared, baby
Look how fast you're going
Good times, you made me think about our old times

So crazy
When you met me I was scared, baby
Look how fast you're going
Good times, you made me think about our goodbye

So much for reality
I guess you got what you want
You got your answer
So much for subtlety
I guess you got what you want
You've got your answer

Dark days
I got a heartache
I'm in a dark place
Woah mmm
Just like you were my flashlight
You were my last high
Woah ooh

So crazy
When you met me I was scared, baby
Look how fast you're going
Good times, you made me think about our old times

(Sorry, I was literally just having a panic attack)
(Oh, okay, are you okay?)
(Yeah)
(Alright, we're gonna head to the store)
(Alright)
(FaceTime me if you need anything)
(Okay)

Train wreck
I think I fell off
I'm going dark mode
In my hotel bar
This shit is not coke
And this is reals, though
Don't tell me sit down
I'll burn the bitch down

So crazy
When you met me I was just a baby
Look how fast I'm going
Good times, you made me think about the good times

So crazy
When you met me I was just a baby
Look how fast I'm going
Good times, you made me think about my good times

Yeah

Just know I'm not proud of everything I did so far

But I did it all for music
