

Danger Danger

Dominum

Danger, danger

Hush

Anybody out there who believed Everything would turnout good and such
Are the kind people so naïve
Wishful thinking, while they're sinking deep
Children inside when dangers arise
Eaten up alive, ha-ha

Look behind you, they will find you
And soon be taking over
Now they're coming, keep on running
Danger, danger
Blood is boiling, world destroying
One dreadful new beginning
End of story in all its glory
Danger, danger
Danger, danger

Crash

They won't be forgiven when it's late
Much too late to face the truth, no less
They begin to wonder what went wrong
Why they didn't see it comin'
Run for your life, leave all things behind
(Leave behind, leave behind)
You'll be dead on time

Look behind you, they will find you
And soon be taking over
Now they're coming, keep on running
Danger, danger
Blood is boiling, world destroying
One dreadful new beginning
End of story in all its glory
Danger, danger
Danger, danger

So much blood, so much pain, so much crying
Where to go, what to do, living hell
One more look (one more look)
One last kiss (one more look)
This is not going away

Ohh-oh-oh-ohh, ohh-oh-oh-ohh
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Ohh-oh-oh-ohh, ohh-oh-oh-ohh
Oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
Ohh-oh-oh-ohh, ohh-oh-oh-ohh
Danger, danger

Look behind you, they will find you
And soon be taking over
Now they're coming, keep on running
Danger, danger
Blood is boiling, world destroying

One dreadful new beginning
End of story in all its glory
Danger, danger

Look behind you, they will find you
Ohh-oh-oh-ohh, ohh-oh-oh-ohh
End of story in all its glory
Danger, danger
Danger, danger
