

Die For The Devil

Dominum

Slaves to the sin, there's a book of the dark
Lost in the mist, it has still left its mark
Read page by page, you can tell by the tone
Hell is the place we belong

What if we're wrong and the good are the bad
What if they lied and we've all been misled
God is a fraud, maybe we should've known
Hell is the place we belong
Hell is the place we belong

Say, would you die for the devil?
Never be afraid to give your life
Die for the devil
Everybody's made to sacrifice
Take a bow for the ultimate commandment
Die for the devil, die for the devil
He's coming home

He's coming home to reclaim what is his
Back with a smile and a radical shift
Lo and behold, set himself on the throne
Hell is the place we belong

Say, would you die for the devil?
Never be afraid to give your life
Die for the devil
Everybody's made to sacrifice
Take a bow for the ultimate commandment
Die for the devil, die for the devil
He's coming home

Another chapter in the world
Angelic voices and the sound of swords
Now everyone can see
For everyone believes

Ave satanas lux tenebarum libertas
In voluntate tua

Say, would you die for the devil?
Never be afraid to give your life
Die for the devil
Everybody's made to sacrifice
Take a bow for the ultimate commandment
Would you die for the devil?
Never be afraid to give your life
Die for the devil
Everybody's made to sacrifice
Take a bow for the ultimate commandment
Die for the devil, die for the devil
He's coming home
