

Breaking Down

Dommin

Another crime has taken place
Another life has been erased
Another, another, another
Another lie right to my face

I'm breaking down
I'm breaking down
I'm breaking down

The trust again has been betrayed
Our fabric has been torn and frayed
Oh sister, oh brother, oh mother
How far from virtue will I stray?
How long will we all be afraid?

I'm breaking down
Pain, hate, rage
I'm breaking down
Pain, hate, rage
And I don't know how much more that I can take
I'm breaking down
Pain, hate, rage

I think I finally understand
What makes a broken madman mad
My judgment crumbles down like sand

I'm breaking down
Pain, hate, rage
I'm breaking down
Pain, hate, rage
And I don't know how much more that I can take
And the repetition's driving me insane
I'm breaking down
