

Change

Dommin

I feel like something is missing
But you can't hear if you don't listen
I hate to break tradition, but I need
To make a change in the direction
Right some wrongs, make some connections
Maybe reconnect with history

'Cause it's time, it's time
It's time, it is time

But I'm just so tired, so tired
So tired, of the game
I've gone so tired, so tired
So tired, of the same
Something's gotta change
Something's gotta change

It's time to write a new edition
A whole new world in mint condition
A true exhibition of the free
Open up a different venue
Order from another menu
And through the glass and rope we'll be, we'll be

I'm just so tired, so tired
So tired, of the game
I've gone so tired, so tired
So tired, of the same
Something's gotta change

Something's gotta change
Something's gotta change
Something's gotta change
Something's gotta change
Something's gotta change
Something's gotta change
Something's gotta change
Something's gotta change
Yeah, yeah!
