

Honestly

Dommin

You don't know how I felt Sullen inside me. I'll never be
And it's only for my health
You've never forgotten, and I still believe in love

Honestly, I never thought I'd lose myself so deep inside you
I gotta breathe
And I need to burn in love; it's something more that I've been feeling from you
I gotta leave? Honestly

And I'm looking at myself
Feeling the cancer. Living in need
And I know there's nothing left
There are no answers, and no in-between

Honestly, I never thought I'd lose myself so deep inside you
I gotta breathe
And I need to burn in love; it's something more that I've been
feeling from you
I gotta leave? Honestly

Your ghost won't leave from my side, ahh?
From the break of day, through the night, ahh?
Honestly, honestly, honestly you are killing me
