

Safe

Dommin

Well it's over and I lost the war
Start to count all my losses, clean my wounds
I reveal every secret
And I speak without regret
And it's easy when you know I want to

Well, it's safe here
And I can't hide from you, my feelings
And it's safe here
And there's nothing to lose but faith

Am I prisoner because you captured me
Or am I here because I surrendered

Well, it's safe here
And I can't hide from you, my feelings
And it's safe here
And there's nothing to lose but faith

Well, it's safe here
And I can't hide from you, my feelings
And it's safe here
And there's nothing to lose but faith

Well, it's safe here
And I can't hide from you, my feelings
And it's safe here
And there's nothing to lose but faith
