

Strings

Dommin

I'm running out of things to say
To make you quietly just go away
Without waiting another day
And coming from the mouth of you
Is just the fire that has been fed the fuel
By my insensitivity because I'm...

Breaking these strings that tie you to me
And it's making me open my eyes and see
So I'm taking back everything
Every memory
Everything that we could ever be
I'm breaking these strings that tie you to me

Call me selfish, insecure
But I'm not quite as right or half as pure
As I was, right before us
And what's good for you is not for me
I can't spend my life just trying to please everyone
So now I'm done and now I'm...

Breaking these strings that tie you to me
And it's making me open my eyes and see
So I'm taking back everything
Every memory
Everything that we could ever be
I'm breaking these strings that tie you to me

Eee-oh
Eee-oh
Eee-oh
Eee-oh

Breaking these strings that tie you to me
And it's making me open my eyes and see
'Cause I'm breaking these strings that tie you to me
And it's making me open my eyes and see
I can see
I can see

I'm taking back everything
Every memory
Everything that we could ever be
I'm breaking these strings that tie you to me
I'm breaking these strings that tie you to me
