Thorns & Roses

Dommin

Babe, I drown you in reverence
I empty out all the oceans and my devotion
And the pain that I'm happy to suffer
After all I'm already broken

It's thorns and roses
It's thorns and roses

Love and pain
The fire and the rain
Give and take
We rise and we fall

Please, fill me with passion
Pour in me all your kindness and willful blindness
See and believe in my goodness
Root me in solid ground

Never ever let me down
Never ever let me down, yeah

Love and pain
The fire and the rain
Give and take
We rise and we fall
I'm afraid
But I won't be scared away
Make or break
I'm here for it all

Somehow you overlook the scars
Somehow you see me in the dark

Love and pain
The fire and the rain
Give and take
We rise and we fall
I'm afraid
But I won't be scared away
Make or break
I'm here for it all

We rise and we fall
I'm here for it all
