Domo Genesis

I was totally off my rocker
Thought it had a hallowed outcome
I'm out in front of the Hysteria, it's a factory for villains in my area
I'm a cold motherfucker
It's a cold
Cold world once you get to know it
A lot of shit out of my control, got a mindset of my own
I stay inside
I be at home, besides the unknown
It's nothing, I afford too much my Time, that's looking foreign
I'm in that mode, pour a little something for the memories
That's if they visit, by myself singing soliloquies
When I was talking to the gods, they must have listened
The future looked too odd to see my vision
My steps into the side was left imprinted
Made decisions I resented
But Shann they can't knock me off my pivot, forget it
If you sit quiet, you implicit
'M in motion, my energy gone thrive, it's no condition
I'm so conditioned
I've been shifting, just trying to regulate the system
I've been self-caring, essential oil in the palm of my hand, br eathe in that air
There's something in it, intuition real
I know when I
Feel it
I already know, it's real, it's real, it's real, it's real, I a lready know, it's real

It's real, it's real, it's real, I already know, it's real, it' s real, I already know
I know it already, I know that it's real, I already know that i t's real, it's real, it's real, it's real, it's real
