Domo Genesis

The nickel plated the same as the skin copper lord
This what it's doctored for
I'm noxious, even at its hottest It was the art of boxing
Sweated out the toxins, who in my corner, waiting on us
Nothing worse then it's dead weight up on us
Them haters tried to put Satan on us
Let's see how long it take me
Reveal you really just want you made of, I send you to meet you r maker
No longer patience it's for the pay stubs, you gotta live befor e you day come
And if we ate it's day one, you niggas ain't one
If you don't like it nigh a change sumn, it said a lot when I a in't sayin none
Stay in yo lane If I'm wave running
It's telepathic nigga, me and you we ain't the same fabrics
You niggas only trynna play game who ain't practice, can't matt er
Blow yo mind down to brain matter
The art display it was paint splattered
I don't even believe we collecting the same data from it
It ain't no humor when ya money funny
My winter wind it's looking summer sunny
These niggas can't take nothing from me I promise

I might be rambling off a lil bit
Pay your dues to be at this part it's gone cost you a lil bit
I need it all I ain't pardoning shit
My triple double didn't involve an assist Level I played it on hard is it gets

I'm my smartest with this, I'm eating hearty where the heartles s exist
I can't feel it

Numb to it
That facade was no longer fun to us
Can't speak on real shit it run through us
I let it rain to bring a flood through it
The only thing I ain't get enough of is being...
