

Until U Understand

Domo Genesis

Finish your food, never cry over spilled milk
From comfortered floor, now I the dream catcher silk
Sari, really the cloth though
Running like Roscoe
The nose of those opposing in business it don't belong in

Stick em for the days, I got the short end of it
I finally figured the importance
Everything is in accordance to the layout, you niggas lame

Letting the world change around you while you stay the same
Let me play my lane
I've never worried bout another
Every accomplishment encouraging my brothers
They gotta enviously suffer when they don't love us

I'm taking steps, that got my heart racing through my chest
I wake up and I'm alive, I know I'm blessed
This shit a luxury, I ain't keeping company up it's only family around
And you know for them it's whatever it takes to keep em safe

Still got repairs I gotta make
I apologize for time wasted
A lot of demons that I gotta face
I can't sit comfortably

In complacency
