

Bad Feeling

Don Broco

Bad feeling, a bad feeling

Holiday, I need a holiday
I need an easy lay
I need an easy way out

I'm under pressure
I'm feeling the heat
I'm under pressure keeping my conscience clean
And if I make it by the skin of my teeth
Wake up a bad feeling that's not going to sleep

Be there
Be there to come back to when I need
I'm asking be there for me
Know that you'll be there

A bad feeling
That bad thoughts are preying on my mind
A bad feeling
A bad feeling
A bad feeling
That bad thoughts are preying on my mind
A bad feeling
A bad feeling

Every day, I wonder every day
Can she alleviate
Can she release the tension

I'm under pressure to stay on my feet
I'm under pressure
She's making my knees go weak
Can't take the pressure now she's head over heels
Can't shake the bad feeling that's been following me

Be there please
Know that you'll be there
You'll be there

A bad feeling
That bad thoughts are preying on my mind
A bad feeling
A bad feeling
A bad feeling
That bad thoughts are preying on my mind
A bad feeling that the bad thoughts are going nowhere

(Bad feeling)

I'll smile and lie to your face
I'm fine, Crack on with my day
And writhing all the way
I'm asking, I'm asking be there
Be there to come back to when I need
I'm asking be there for me
You're giving me that bad feeling

The bad feeling

Bad feeling that bad thoughts are preying on my mind

A bad feeling

A bad feeling

A bad feeling that bad thoughts are preying on my mind

A bad feeling the bad thoughts are going nowhere.
