

How Are You Done with Existing?

Don Broco

You don't care
You don't care what they say about it
You don't care
You don't care what I say about it
Blame the family
Blame your DNA
Like your father and father before him
Burn the body in a cardboard coffin is all you're gonna say
No, you don't wanna stay

Devastation on your mind
Devastation on your mind
Ah, ah

Lack of patience in your eyes
Annihilation in your eyes
Ah, ah

I'm not giving up
Don't give it up
How are you done with existing?
You let me know
Know
There's no way, no, I won't be fine
Go to call you up but now your phone don't ring
How are you done with existing?
You let me know
Know

In the garden
The garden is where you're going
To the carbon
The carbon is what you want
You feel like a change
You don't wanna stay, no
I can't know your pain
I don't get a say

Devastation on your mind
What's the point in waiting?
Ooh, whoa, whoa

I'm not giving up
Don't give it up
How are you done with existing?
You let me know
Know
There's no way, no, I won't be fine
Go to call you up but now you're phone don't ring
How are you done with existing?
You let me know
Know

Every single day is wonderful
Everything you said is wonderful
Blowing up your phone, it's wonderful
The wonderful, yeah, the wonderful

Every single breath is wonderful
Everything you said is wonderful
Blowing up your phone, the wonderful
The wonderful yeah the wonderful

There's no way, no, I won't be fine
Go to call you up but now you're phone don't ring
How are you done with existing?
You let me know
Know

There's no way, no, I won't be fine
Go to call you up but now you're phone don't ring
How are you done with existing?
You let me know
Know

Not giving up
I'm not giving up
Don't give it up
I'm not giving up
Don't give it up
Don't give it up
I'm not giving up
Don't give it up
I'm not giving up
Don't give it up
I'm not giving up
Don't give it up
I'm not giving up
Don't give it up, don't give it up
