

Congratulations

Don Diablo

Dreamin'
Dreamin' 'bout the days that were good, yeah
Take me
Take me back to music in my room, yeah

All my life, I've been searching
Lookin' for something perfect
That only led me back to blue
Might be a little broken
But I've got my eyes wide open
I'm gonna say it till it's true

Lately, I've been standing
I don't need no leg room
Fuck congratulations
No more expectations
Don't care 'bout my FOMO
I've been ridin' solo
So congratulations
(So congratulations)

Daily
Daily I've been reachin' for the stars, yeah
Made it
Made it but I only got so far, yeah

All my life, I've been searching
Lookin' for something perfect
That only led me back to blue
Might be a little broken
But I've got my eyes wide open
I'm gonna say it till it's true

Lately, I've been standing
I don't need no leg room
Fuck congratulations
No more expectations
Don't care 'bout my FOMO
I've been ridin' solo
So congratulations
(So congratulations)

Can't do this over again
And over again, and over again
I know it's hard to admit
It's hard to admit, it's hard to admit
It's half a quarter past ten
I wanna give in, I wanna give in
Can't do this over again, and over again

Lately, I've been standing
I don't need no leg room
Fuck congratulations
No more expectations
Don't care 'bout my FOMO
I've been ridin' solo
So congratulations

(So congratulations)

Lately, I've been standing
I don't need no leg room
Fuck congratulations
No more expectations
Don't care 'bout my FOMO
I've been ridin' solo
So congratulations
(So congratulations)
