Echoes

Don Diablo

Take me home
To where we belong
And the echoes of the night
Will all travel to the light
There's a long way to go
To the end of the world
Through rain and through snow
We will never let you go

And when you hear my echo calling
(And when you hear my echo calling)
Through gravity we'll be falling
(Through gravity we'll be falling)
And when we're lost in time and space
(And when we're lost in time and space)
Will you still remember my face?
(Will you still remember my face?)

"These are extraordinary times. And we face an extraordinary ch allenge. The dramatic achievements which occurred in recent wee ks should have made clear to us all, the impact of this adventu re on the minds of men everywhere, who are attempting to make a determination of which road they should take." [JFK, 1961]

Take me home
To where we belong
And the echoes of the night
Will all travel to the light
There's a long way to go
To the end of the world
Through rain and through snow
We will never let you go
