

Everybody Else But Me

Don Francisco

Way back then in Jesus' time; the Pharisees walked so proud They thought that they had the way to God; they prayed their prayers out loud But Jesus said they had hell to pay; for the pretense and the games they'd play I'm glad that's not like us today; we wouldn't act like that

Everybody else but me, Everybody else but me
He was talking to the hypocrite and pharisee
Everybody else but me

I went to church one day last month, the preacher preached real good Talked about 'true' commitment; New Testament brotherhood
He talked about watching the things we say; the gossip that can wound and slay I sure wish Joe had been there that day; 'cos he really needed to hear it

When Jesus made disciples; he told them what they had to do Turn your backs on everything except what he called them to;
He said take up your cross and follow me; deny yourself and you'll be free Ah...but he meant those guys back in Galilee; that was just for them back then

Everybody else but me; everybody else but me
He was talking to those people back in Galilee Anybody else but me
