

Let The Waters Roll

Don Francisco

When I heard you call me I could not say no
And the joy that you've given I can't help but show
And I feel it grow stronger each time I obey
To fulfill to your commandment, I stand here today

My brothers and my sisters are here by my side
As I show all who watch me that old things have died
I'm buried with Jesus like a seed that's been sown
And I'm raised up with him to his heavenly throne

Let the waters roll over my sin and desire
Baptise me in Spirit, baptise me in fire
In the name of the Father, the Spirit, the Son
My old life has ended, the new has begun

So baptise me now, 'cause I'm ready to die
And I'm ready to live for my master on high
'Til spirit and soul from this body divide

Or until he returns like a thief for his bride

Let the waters roll over my sin and desire
Baptise me in Spirit, baptise me in fire
In the name of the Father, the Spirit, the Son
My old life has ended, the new has begun

So baptise me now, 'cause I'm ready to die
And I'm ready to live for my master on high
'Til spirit and soul from this body divide
Or until he returns like a thief for his bride

Let the waters roll over my sin and desire
Baptise me in Spirit, baptise me in fire
In the name of the Father, the Spirit, the Son
My old life has ended: the new has begun
My old life has ended: the new has begun
