

Shelter Of Your Wings

Don Francisco

I will wait for God alone
All my hope is in the Holy one.
You alone are my deliverer
And the refuge for my soul

And I will lay my heart before you
I will lift my hands and sing
And my soul will rest in confidence
In the shelter of your wings.

I will seek you in the morning
In this dry and weary land
From your throne comes living water
Loving kindness from your hand.

So I will lay my heart before you
I will lift my hands and sing
And my soul will rest in confidence
In the shelter of your wings

Blessed be the Lord almighty
Daily all our burdens bears
Our deliverer and saviour
Unto you I cast my cares

I will lay my heart before you
I will lift my hands and sing
And my soul will rest in confidence
In the shelter of your wings X2
