

The Next Voice You Hear

Don Gibson

The next voice you hear will be your conscience
As you lie awake each night and try to sleep
And your unfaithful heart will make you listen (Listen, listen)
To the shabby little secrets you keep

You'll be tormented like you tormented me
And tears of shame will fall with every memory
But the next voice you hear will make you listen
Till you wish that you had listened to me

You'll be tormented like you tormented me
And tears of shame will fall with every memory
And the next voice you hear will make you listen (Listen, listen)
Till you wish that you had listened to me
