

Where Is Your Heart Tonight

Don Gibson

Where is your heart tonight?
You look at me with eyes that do not see
Where is your heart tonight?
Hmm, some love thief must have stolen it from me

Yes, tomorrow you'll be different
I'm hoping you'll end it all that every thing's all right
But now though I'm holding you tight
I wonder, dear, where is your heart tonight
Tomorrow you'll be different
