You're Not Drinking Enough

Don Henley

I can see that you haven't recovered from the girl who let you down

And you'd sell what is left of your soul for another go-round You keep telling yourself she means nothing and maybe you shoul d call her bluff

But you don't really believe it You must not be drinking enough

Well, the perfume she wore you can buy down at the Five & Dime But on some other woman it don't smell the same in your mind You keep telling yourself you can take it—Telling yourself that you're tough But you still wanna hold her You must not be drinkin' enough

You're not drinkin' enough to wash away old memories
And there ain't enough whiskey in Texas to keep you from beggin
, "Please, please, please"

She passed on you passion and stepped on you pride Turns out you ain't quite so tough 'Cause you still wanna hold her You must not be drinkin' enough

Ay-yi-yi-yi
Ask yourself why
You still want to hold her
You must not be drinkin' enough
Ay-yi-yi-yi
