

Living With the Blues

Don McLean

I'm not ashamed
Ain't that news
I've been living with the blues

When you ever been down?
When you know how that feels
When you ever been lonesome
You got no driving wheel
Well I'm not ashamed, ain't that news
Oh, I've been living with the blues

Blue sky's been my blanket
Rocks have been my pillow
And the moonlight's been my spread
You know, I'm not ashamed, ain't that news
Oh, I've been living with the blues

Blue sky's been my blanket
Rainbow for my spread
I used rocks for my pillow
I used the cold ground for my bed

When you ever been lonesome
When you know how that feels
When you ever be lonely
You got no driving wheel
I'm not ashamed, ain't that news
Oh, I've been living with the blues

I'm not ashamed, ain't that news
Oh, I've been living with the blues
