

Boundless Love

Don Moen

We rejoice, we rejoice in the name of the Lord
We rejoice in His love today
By His love, we can conquer and do anything
We rejoice in His love today

We rejoice, we rejoice in the name of
the Lord
We rejoice in His love today
By His love, we can conquer and do
anything
We rejoice in His love today

Boundless love, boundless love,
He has conquered all of death and the grave
Boundless love, boundless love,
By His love our souls are saved

We rejoice, we rejoice in the name of
the Lord
We rejoice in His love today
By His love, we can conquer and do
anything
We rejoice in His love today
Boundless love, boundless love,
Boundless love, boundless love,
By His love our souls are saved
Boundless love, boundless love,
Boundless love, boundless love,
By His love our souls are saved
By His love our souls are saved
By His love
Our souls are saved
