

Weakness

Don Q

I can't be showing no weakness
I can't be showing no weakness
Hold the forty playing defence
Can't have my momma on morning and week
I can't be showing no weakness

I cannot show how I feel about the [?]
'Cause we know that they reaching
Bitches I used to chase got the stupid face
They don't know how to reach
Niggas I used to love throwing mixed signals
But I know how to read 'em
(And what you can't do?)
I can't be showing no mercy
I can't be showing attention to broke niggas
When I know they ain't worth it
I don't be feeling high when I sip plain
So I throw in the purp
Dirty money helped me pay my ties
I'm hoping God never curse
And I can't be showing my tac-tics
I know these niggas gon' copy the ways
But I can't be over reacting
When they wanna walk in the path you pave
How you supposed to be acting?
But I know most of them capping
So don't believe what they post in they captions

I can't be showing no weakness
I can't be showing no weakness
Hold the forty playing defence
Can't have my momma on morning and week
I can't be showing no weakness

Yeah, and I gotta be more persistent
Longevity only thing worrying me, I gotta keep it consistent
You telling me you never heard of me?
Man, I ain't even convinced
They repping me out in some cities that I ain't even know exist
Touch down on the Europe scene
I was euro stepping in some Europeans
Euros busting out of Mary jeans
Holy water looking pure clean
You hear the style I created
It made me the saviour so fuck how they rate it
I taze 'bout a two when I take it
It's numb in my body, I'm always sedated
(And what you can't do?)
And I can't be running round helpless
You had a chance to put on your mans
Why niggas is moving so selfish?
That's why I never could put my career
In the hands of somebody else's
I was just trapping, tryna be the king of rock
To becoming the Elvis

I can't be showing no weakness

I can't be showing no weakness
Hold the forty playing defence
Can't have my momma on morning and week

I can't be showing no weakness
I can't be showing no weakness
Hold the forty playing defence
Can't have my momma on morning and week

(Yeah, I can't be showing no weakness
I never told 'em my secrets
I play the corner with my piece
You know my flow is the deepest
I can't be showing no weakness
I can't be showing no weakness
I can't be showing no weakness)
