

Yeah, you the one I want
No, I can't lie, you the one I want (Yeah)
Say what it is, keep it blunt
New girl for the month, picked right out the bunch

And I know that it gets old and it gets cold (Yeah)
Just pull up and when you're outside, hit me for the gate code
Did a lot to keep you guessing
Probably realized that he put you second
'Cause your heart broke, but you learned your lesson
Been a long time, but you still get sexy

But yeah, you still got it
Always askin' "What you doin'?", tell 'em take you shoppin'
If he don't do it for you, baby, get a different option
Got you comin' out the crib and he ain't comin' out of pocket
How long that's gon' take?
Know you just wanna escape
Know you just want a break
But, girl, you gotta embrace (Yeah)

And I know that it gets old and it gets cold (Yeah)
Just pull up and when you're outside, hit me for the gate code
Did a lot to keep you guessing
Probably realized that he put you second
'Cause your heart broke, but you learned your lesson
Been a long time, but you still get sexy

Still get sexy
Call my phone or text me, yeah
It's about that time to come roll out (Yeah, yeah)
Ridin' so long, bound for a blowout
Do your dance, she love to show out (Yeah, yeah)
You're goin' crazy, ain't know but I know now
Let me pull up later
Show you how I'm rockin', do you all a favor
Ooh, uh-uh
(Do it again)
Uh, uh-uh
(Do it again)

And I know that it gets old and it gets cold (Yeah)
Just pull up and when you're outside, hit me for the gate code
Did a lot to keep you guessing
Probably realized that he put you second
'Cause your heart broke, but you learned your lesson
Been a long time, but you still get sexy
