

Yeah
I see lucky sevens
(That nigga Ladd got the juice, ho)
Yeah
I don't know what the fuck you see in me
Said I don't know what the fuck you see in me
Yeah

Did you read the terms or conditions 'fore you signed?
I guess that's why they tell us love is blind
It's such a maze inside this broken mind of mine
I know it's hard work, but you've given it overtime
I don't know what it mean when they say apple of my eye
But I know every day of our lives ain't gon' be sweet as pie
If it's me against the world, I'm lucky you on my side
Like when Bonnie laid eyes on Clyde the first time
If I could go back in time and press rewind
I would choose you a thousand times
I added you to my life and then we multiplied
No matter what, I won't let us divide, yeah

I'm sure you got a better place to be
I can't even blame you if you flee
Be careful not to cut yourself on all my broken pieces
I just don't know what the fuck you see in me

But I see lucky sevens
Yeah, don't know what the fuck you see in me
I see lucky sevens
I don't know what the fuck you see in me, man
Yeah, don't know what the fuck you see in me
I see lucky sevens
I don't know what the fuck you see in me

I had three baby mamas when we met
I'll be honest with myself, that's a lot to accept
That's a lot to endure, that's a lot to digest
You, you accepted my flaws and brought a mop to my mess
You, you deserve an award for that, a round of applause for that I put up a wall to guard my heart and it all collapsed
No matter what people say, as long as we go be great
We livin' in livin' color until we both old and great
I ain't perfect, you aware
Opposites do attract, if so, we a perfect pair
Nothin' last forever, still ain't nothin' they can tell us
'Cause Mariah told us we belong together, yeah

And I'm sure you got a better place to be
I can't even blame you if you leave
Be careful not to cut yourself on all my broken pieces
I just wonder what the fuck you see in me

'Cause I see lucky sevens
Don't know what the fuck you see in me
I see lucky sevens
I just wonder what the fuck you see in me
I see lucky sevens

I just wonder what the fuck you see in me
