

Accountability

Don Trip

Yeah

Yeah (Hey, Stevie)

Maybe it's me, maybe it's me
I put too much faith in you, I'm so naive
I should've turned my back on you like you did me
It's all my fault, I let you blame it all on me

Maybe us goin' our separate ways is we need
If you don't fuck with me, don't fake it, nigga, the truth'll set you free
If you don't fuck with me, that's great, my nigga, that's one less face to feed
It'll be my pleasure to let you walk away, you got my grace to leave
Good riddance

I let you get far too comfortable and that was my mistake
I know every time I mow my lawn, I'm likely the finest snake
Full speed ahead, my foot can't find the brakes, I ain't got no time to waste
I'd rather grind than play, I get a rush every time I sign and date
I gotta get me some cake, I want a couple more cars and a bigger estate
I wanna hide where the driveways so damn long it feel like I'm hidden away

I'll put a tag right on your pinky toe if you ever get in the way
Bitch, I'm strapped, I put belt to ass, lil' nigga, don't misbehave
We cut all the squares up out our circle, now it's more for us
Truth is I dropped all these fuckin' records 'cause I was bored as fuck

Ain't tryna find to corners to cut, all my bread, don't cut off the crust

I'm on my way to the bank just so you know where I'm at when the goin' get tough

Man, I miss my dog, I miss my dogs, I better not miss no bitch
Got so many names on my hit list, it look like a Christmas list
I don't kiss my baby mama's ass, so they throw hissy fits
I know they feelings soft as tissue paper, I still don't give two shits

Bitch, please, maybe it's me
I put too much faith in you, I'm so naive
I should've turned my back on you like you did me
It's my fault, I let you blame it all on me
It's okay, I let you blame it all on me
I put too much faith in you, now, silly me
It's alright, go 'head and blame it all on me
It's my fault, I'll take accountability

Long live Pif

Yeah

Season 4

Yeah

It's my fault, I'll take accountability
It's my fault, I'll take accountability
Now, it's my fault, I'll take accountability
It's my fault, I'll take accountability-ty-ty-ty-ty
Yeah
