

Dreamers Only

Don Trip

(DTdaKidd)

(Beat those drums)

Yeah

Either go hard or we can go back home

'Cause home is filled with doubt

Who wanna go back home after chasin' they dreams and it didn't work out?

Shit's embarrassing, you know I know

The what's-his-names and so-and-sos

All comin' around 'cause they can't wait to tell you, "I told you so"

Is it me? Feels like you get a satisfaction when I don't succeed

Here are you livin' hand and feet, how would you know what's best for me?

Matter fact, that's just the thing

Time to do what's best for me

Just because you don't believe don't mean my dreams are make-believe

Problem is you never learned to dream

Problem is I never learned to quit

Mr. Trip, I'm here to stay and the mark I'm leavin' is permanent

You might not even get it, it's okay if you don't see the vision

I'm not sharin' my plans with you, I'm on a top-secret mission

Life too short, gotta set some goals, now I got a whole set of goals

Heard the sky was the limit, so I bought a plane ticket and a telescope

Now I'm seein' stars, gettin' rich was the easy part

More money, more problems, now I got paper cuts on my bleeding heart

I went against every odd, some of y'all ain't never start

You somewhere in my comments section talkin' 'bout how you can do a better job

Even if you don't like my guts, can't ignore my grind, you gotta respect it

You tell me it's impossible, I'm thinkin' challenge accepted

Money is calling, I gotta collect it

I told my wife I'll be home in a second

I can maneuver through hell on Earth

I'm godbody, my home is my heaven

Told my kids I'll be home in a second

I walk in and tell 'em to gather together

You probably ain't never gon' see me smile

My babies is healthy, I'm happy as ever, yeah

Yeah

Probably ain't never gon' see me smile

My babies is healthy, I'm happy as ever, yeah, yeah

Probably ain't never gon' see me smile

My babies is healthy, I'm happy as ever

Long live Pif (DTdaKidd)
