

Foolish Pride

Don Trip

You ever had trouble confronting like a difficult conversation
Via pride not wanting to be the first one
To speak up
You know it could be
A apology that necessary
Just clearing the air or

I wish that I could find the words
We distant now it kinda hurts
Look never mind who's right or wrong not to justify what occurred
Foolish pride we should set aside
I guess that imma go first
Put it all in a verse
Hope that ion make it worse

Maybe I'm the problem
Maybe you got sick of all the late nights when I ain't call you
Maybe I was too focused on finding fortune and I lost you
Maybe you was in love with all the expensive shit that I bought you
So you stayed with me for the benefits but your heart really ain't want to Maybe it was all the lies all the alibis all the broken promises
Maybe it was too much and you couldn't deal you just wanted out of it
Maybe I was too attracted to them other bitches made you insecure
Maybe money ain't matter to you all that matters was I wasn't there
Maybe it was all your late nights in the club
Tryna catch a vibe tryna get a buzz
Meanwhile you find somebody else to love
Meanwhile you find somebody you in sync with
You just going out for drinks ran into your ex isn't that convenient
Now you wanna cut me off just to run off where the grass is greenest
At least to where you think it is
But nothings perfect as you think it is
You just wanted off the sinking ship
Only time can reveal
Think you got somebody who gon help you heal
Til it's time to make it through the hail storm
Now they tryna use your ass as a shield

I wish that I could find the words
We distant now it kinda hurts
Look never mind who's right or wrong not to justify what occurred
Foolish pride we should set aside
I guess that imma go first
Put it all in a verse
Hope that ion make it worse

I wish that I could find the words
We distant now it kinda hurts
Look never mind who's right or wrong not to justify what occurred
Foolish pride we should set aside
I guess that imma go first
Put it all in a verse
Hope that ion make it worse

Well
I'm hoping I ain't making matters worse
I ain't tryna rub it in

Really I'm just tryna offer you some closure that way all the bitter bullshi t can end
You can stop coming for me on the gram
You can stop bashing me to your friends
Thought we had both went our separate ways
Every other day here we are again
Here we go again
Please move on honestly we'll probably never get along
Every drop of love I had for you is gone
Obviously we better off on our own
Hope you find love
Hope you find peace
Hope you find every single thing you need
Go and live your life
I can guarantee
Baby I am not losing any sleep
Promise I am not gonna miss a beat
I wish you the best really that's that
And to keep it G
If it's up to me
I will vote to leave the past in the past
Focus on the future focus on the bag
I ain really tripping over what we had Ion care what treasure other niggas find when they get to searching through a nigga trash
Long live Pip

I wish that I could find the words
We distant now it kinda hurts
Look never mind who's right or wrong not to justify what occurred
Foolish pride we should set aside
I guess that imma go first
Put it all in a verse
Hope that I didn't make it worse
