

Fourth and Fifty

Don Trip

Yeah, turn my headphones up a lil' bit
Turn, turn the mic (DTdaKidd)
Turn the mic down a lil' bit (B-Beat those drums)
Yeah

At the line of scrimmage like it's fourth and fifty (Fifty)
Waitin' on the other side to try to blitz me
I'm with it and that ain't no motherfuckin' mystery (Mystery)
Whoever come to get to me is comin' with me

Bitch, I been a rider since I had a ten-speed
Seen a dead body 'fore I finished elementary
Where the money at? I chase it like a shot of whiskey
Cut them niggas off so long ago, it's ancient history
Don't play with me, it's risky, I promise you
They thought they had me figured out, but I keep callin' audibles
At the moment, I can't even lie, I feel unstoppable
Me? Trickin' on a bitch's mission? Impossible
I just watched a lot of you and now I know what not to do
I don't really rock with you
I prefer my solitude
Ain't I anti? My guerilla empire
Got the stick like I'm holdin' marshmallows in a campfire
I want s'more
I got more problems than any person can afford
I got enough problems to never focus on yours (Yours)
Too busy with me, myself, and Irene
Listen young buck, don't get stuck in the high beams
The streets don't love us
Don't ever think otherwise
Even though that fast money give a nigga butterflies
Oh, it's such an adrenaline rush
Until the building get rushed
Then we end up in cuffs
Now the niggas you with ain't some niggas you trust
Y'all was livin' it up, now they givin' you up (Givin' you up)
Now, don't say I ain't warn you, Lord knows I tried
But when you can't provide, you gotta improvise
I witnessed both sides, mama oh-so tired
She been doin' double shifts for like most our lives
Bein' broke make it difficult to socilaize
And we ain't signin' up for no more lies (No more lies)

Yeah, I'm at the line of scrimmage like it's fourth and fifty (Fifty)
Waitin' on the other side to try to blitz me
I'm with it and that ain't no motherfuckin' mystery (Mystery)
Whoever come to get to me is comin' with me (Is comin' with me)

Yeah, whoever come to get to me is comin' with me (Is comin' with me)
Yeah, yeah
Whoever come to get to me is comin' with me (Is comin' with me)
Yeah
Long live Pif
Yeah, (DTdaKidd), yeah (B-Beat those drums)
I said, long live Pif
