

Hello Darkness

Don Trip

(What's up, Juwop?)
(Red On The Beat)

You don't know what I been through (Through)
So how I move just might offend you (You)
Nothing left to prove (Prove), I'm somewhere secluded (Yeah)
Can't say it was easy, but this coupe roofless
Born in the dark, but now I'm shining (Shining)
Top spot locked, that's where I'm climbing (Climbing)
Too hot, walk in, change the climate in here
The darkness that I'm from is the darkness you feel

If it walk like a duck, it's a duck, talk like a plug, you a plug
You can dress like me, you can act like me, but you never gon' be one of us
Cut from a cloth you can't import, born in the dark and I carry a torch
I done had everything at least once, but I ain't never had any remorse Niggas ain't rootin' for us and that's cool with me, I buy cars and guns by the twos and three
Dope game just like cars I drive, been fifteen years since I used a key
Streets ain't cool as it used to be, I'm good, I'm grown, I'm out of the way
Lookin' at you with the blankest stare, I walk in the bank with a smile on m y face
Walk in the bank with the fire on my waist, the money I make niggas dyin' to take
For anyone keepin' an eye on my cake, I promise you makin' a dire mistake
Life's a bitch, I'm a son of a gun, and I was born, I was born to blast Big and bad, you can step in my way if you want, don't say I ain't warn your ass

You better not cross my thugs, my niggas really 'bout it, I promise we been
'bout that action
We 'bout to smoke out this bitch, we on whatever they with
I never sleep 'cause I'm up and I'm full of them beans
Please do not bother me, bitch, I be ballin' and shootin' like Steph
These hoes foul, where is the ref?
And I came from the bottom, I pray with my mama
'Cause I got a son and a daughter that know I'm a problem
I know I should stop, but I'm constantly poppin' 'em
I need some help 'cause the devil keep callin'
I'm in the trap and I'm chasin' a check
I'ma dump at the law, I'ma die for the set
I'ma kick that bitch out when I burn up her head
Pull up and- and it's onto the next
And I'm ridin' for all of my slimes
We pop at an opp and whoever else watchin'
I don't trust a bitch or a rat or a doctor
He tried to run in the spot, so I shot him
I'm never in traffic, they say I'm an addict
My bitch a savage, is ready to crash
Ayy, I got some niggas that's really some hitters
They itchin' to get on you fuck niggas' ass, on God

You don't know what I been through (Through)
So how I move just might offend you (You)
Nothing left to prove (Prove), I'm somewhere secluded (Yeah)
Can't say it was easy, but this coupe roofless
Born in the dark, but now I'm shining (Shining)

Top spot locked, that's where I'm climbing (Climbing)
Too hot, walk in, change the climate in here
The darkness that I'm from is the darkness you feel

Gotta feel me, dog
Ain't no reason to fear me, dog
Forgive how I'm comin', I guess that's the trauma
From niggas that tried to come kill me, dog
When you see through the fog
You see who real, you see who your dog
You see who really get involved
When your back stuck against them walls
When you locked, who gon' answer them calls? Nobody Skatepark how a nigga been out here grindin'
All that hate in your heart'll leave you blinded
Every time you see me pop out, I know you reminded of me
