

Yeah

You know you can't trust everybody
Sometimes we learn that the hard way, you know?
You think niggas is ridin' with you, but Niggas in the backseat loadin' up
Yeah

If you see a fuck nigga, point 'em out
I loved you like a brother, invited you in my house
I used to beg my mama to let you sleep on her couch
So certain shit just ain't supposed to come out your mouth
This is how you repay a nigga that helped you out?
That put you on your feet and helped put some food in your mouth?
And took care of your fam while you was in the can?
Now you a totally different man out on free land
Now you in your feelings 'cause I ain't holdin' your hand
Like I ain't sacrifice what I had to give you a chance
Ungrateful-ass nigga
Silly me for tryna go and make the bag with you
Just to watch you switch up
Niggas ain't loyal
Talkin' all that boss shit, but can't afford lawyers, I thought money was the moral Talkin' 'bout robbin' who? Consult your mama first
'Cause you'll be the reason she'll be ridin' behind a hearse
Know what it is, don't make this somethin' it's not Homie, you just came home, now don't end up in a box
Your daughter call me her uncle, nigga, you breakin' her heart
You been gone for a minute, your family fallin' apart
You should focus on that instead of playin' with me
Nigga, you know how I'm rockin' like every boat in the sea
Yeah, I'm good, nigga
I'm not apologizin' for makin' it out the hood, nigga
I went and captured everything you never could picture
Now stay in your lane
No more reachin' out to me, homie, I'm out of your range
We ain't rockin' the same, we ain't rockin' at all
Say it hurts when you know you gotta cut off your dogs
When the niggas you loved turn into niggas with hate
Well, all that means is all them feelings was fake
When the grass too tall, it's hard to watch for the snakes
But that's okay, because today is one hell of a day to landscape

Yeah

Today is one hell of a day to landscape
Yeah
Long live Pif
