

Perfectly Flawed

(Beat those drums)

Yeah, you don't even have to change the freckle on your nose
Oh, I love all the ways you make me laugh at all your jokes
Please don't change the way you are
'Cause I'm in love with every part

I think you perfect, perfect to me
Perfect for me, I'm perfectly pleased
To you, I surrender, I'll take a knee
We a championship team, baby, come get a ring
And now you can circle our anniversary, nothing can do us part Relationships a gamble, and, baby, we beat the odds
As beautiful as you are, you're beautiful as you are Remarkable how I've fallen in love with your every flaw
Amazing you, baby, I crave for you
Match made in heaven, feel like maybe I'm made for you
I wouldn't dare propose a trade, you're my franchise player
To ever give you away, it just wouldn't play in my favor

You're my favorite person inside my personal space
Here's the girl of my dream, I'm hopin' I never wake
I'm tied to you, I'm bound to you, my love for you is bountiful
To prove it to you, there's no limit to the things I'm bound to do

Yeah, you don't even have to change the freckle on your nose (Prove it to you, there's no limit to the things I'm bound to do)
Oh, I love all the ways you make me laugh at all your jokes
Please don't change the way you are (I think you perfect, perfect to me)
'Cause I'm in love with every part (I think you perfect, perfect for me)

And I'm in love with every scar, the past don't matter at all
We argue like we two lawyers, but when did we pass the bar?
Let's have a seat at your bar, let's have a drink and a talk
Know how frisky you get when you mix it with alcohol
I'm yours
For now and ever, keep shinin' through cloudy weather
They jealous of our connection, we hardwired, we tethered
Ain't nothin' no one can tell us, we'll never fold under pressure
You the highlight of my life, every moment is precious

You're my favorite person inside my personal space
It's the girl of my dreams, I'm hopin' I never wake
I'm tied to you, I'm bound to you, my love for you is bountiful
To prove it to you, there's no limit to the things I'm bound to do

Yeah, you don't even have to change the freckle on your nose (There's no limit to the things I'm bound to do)
Oh, I love all the ways you make me laugh at all your jokes
Please don't change the way you are (I think you perfect, perfect to me)
'Cause I'm in love with every part (I think you perfect, perfect for me)

To you, I surrender
