Don Trip

Yeah
(DTdaKidd), yeah
(Beat those drums)

Ayy, I can't feel the love, I'm on all these drugs
God forgive me for the times I was fuckin' up
Repented to all my sins, woke up and did it again
I had to stand on my ten, it was what it was
I ain't got no friends in this Benz, it's just me and me
Me and me, me and me
I'm 'bout my ends 'til the end, it's just me and me
Me and me, me and me

I don't point no fingers, 'cause I know what we got at stake
I'm the one that trusted you, so I gotta take all the blame
What happens if you fool me twice? Gotta take the walk of shame
At some point, I gotta face the fact you probably not gon' change
Shit ain't just gon' fix itself, might be time to self-reflect
Ain't no way to press rewind, might be time to press eject
Who gon' stand the test of time or fact that only time will show?
Took a good look at my watch, look at that, it's time to go
Friends didn't grow with me, I left a couple down the road
Some couldn't carry they load, I just had to let 'em go
Can't climb this mountain', pullin' dead weight, I love you, though
If you don't get off your ass and climb, I'm gon' have to cut the rope
'Cause I can't let you take me down with you back to the bottom where we started at
I made it too far and worked too hard to have to start from scratch
I gotta go get it whether you by my side or not
You out your mind if you think I'm ever gon' stop

I can't feel the love, I'm on all these drugs
God forgive me for the times I was fuckin' up
Repented to all my sins, woke up and did it again
I had to stand on my ten, it was what it was
I ain't got no friends in this Benz, it's just me and me
Me and me, me and me
I'm 'bout my ends 'til the end, it's just me and me
Me and me, me and me

Yeah, I had love for 'em, but I had to sever some ties
Nothing is destined to us, not even Destiny's Child
Know if you give a nigga an inch, he gon' beg for a mile
Niggas in your inner circle plannin' on X-in' you out
You tell a nigga yes, then he gon' keep comin' back
If you tell a nigga no, now he act like you turned your back
Sorry I'm on to bigger and better things, I'm better than I ever dreamed
Paper over pussy niggas, family over everything, set

I can't feel the love, I'm on all these drugs
God forgive me for the times I was fuckin' up (Long live Pif)
Repented to all my sins, woke up and did it again
I had to stand on my ten, it was what it was
I ain't got no friends in this Benz, it's just me and me
Me and me, me and me
I'm 'bout my ends 'til the end, it's just me and me
Me and me, me and me

Yeah
Yeah
