

Time Flies

Don Trip

(Hey, Stevie)

Oh, my, time flies
Still no tears down my eyes
Oh, guess it's just how it goes
Yeah, when you live purely, you'll surely endure things
That your heart could stop pacing for
So why would I forgive you?
When you know what you did to me
Why would I forgive you? (Yeah)
When you know what you did to me (Yeah)
You know, you know, you know

Flyest motherfucker in the history of aviation
Any nigga tell you different sadly mistaken
Thoroughbred Memphis nigga, never been to Graceland
From the gutter, from the slums, from a fuckin' wasteland
All my dreams come from watchin' Tigger in the basement
Now we in the streets spinnin' like we learned to breakdance
On the corner rollin' stones like a fuckin' caveman
Day in and day out, servin' out the Days Inn
Bitch, my bills due
9-to-5 barely keep the lights on
Make it outta hell, damn right, you throwin' ice on Fuck you think we doin' here? Bitch, I get the big bucks
Simply for the cake, don't you ever get it mixed up
Stayin' out the in crowd, I know I ain't miss much
Your bitch wasn't pretty 'til she went and got a nip tuck
Lookin' at my bank account, feelin' like a million bucks
Eight babies later and I still could never give a fuck, long live Pif

Oh, my, time flies
Still no tears down my eyes
Oh, guess it's just how it goes
Yeah, when you live purely, you'll surely endure things
That your heart could stop pacing for
So why would I forgive you?
When you know what you did to me
Why would I forgive you?
When you know what you did to me
You know, you know, you know

Shit ain't what it is, shit ain't what it seem
The way it ended up feelin' like a bad dream
Put in so much work to end up with not a thing
Motherfucker did me dirty, but I came out clean
Ain't no goin' back and forth, this ain't no motherfuckin' swing
You either is or you ain't, but ain't no in between Tryna run my money up, I'ma get it by all means
Fuck what you're talkin' 'bout, bitch, yeah, just wait and see
'Cause at the end of the day, I only ended up with me
If you ain't on nothin' positive, stay the fuck away from me
At the end of the day, I only ended up with me
If you ain't on nothin' positive, stay the fuck away from me, Dolla

Oh, my, time flies
Still no tears down my eyes

Oh, guess it's just how it goes
Yeah, when you live purely, you'll surely endure things
That your heart could stop pacing for
So why would I forgive you?
When you know what you did to me
Why would I forgive you?
When you know what you did to me
You know, you know, you know
