

I'm Still Looking For You

Don Williams

Love, comes once they say
If it a real thing, me I guess this way,
Knowing you must be there,
Waiting for me somewhere
Some people say I'm a fool,
But I'm still looking for you

Yes, I guess is sad
The lovers I've been through
Some, I could have had
But they never were enough
Nobody measures up
Of all the loves that I've been through
I'm still looking for you

Maybe its wrong
I don't, maybe I'm just chasing rainbows
But, it's gonna be forever when I fall
Maybe my hopes have been sinking,
Lately I found, I've been thinking,
Maybe you were not really there at all

Tears and years go by
But I haven't found it
Seems the dream should die,
But I hang on somehow
Still I keep reaching out
Of all the loves that I've been through
I'm still looking for you
