

Differently The Same

Donavon Frankenreiter

Purple sky seems to mesmerize
As light fills my eyes
Just the beginning of another day
Just not in the same way
Don't think about what you could've done
Cause tomorrow is gonna come
It'll hit ya, dare I near say
It feels like yesterday

Differently the same
Differently the same
Differently the same

Make a mark but don't make it deep
Just in case you climb too steep
Don't forget about what you said
Don't wait too long before tomorrow's dead
Something tells me there's more to see
I don't know maybe it's just me
Could be you, could be me
I don't know I just let it be

Differently the same

What about in the middle of the night?
Everybody sees dark but I see light
I don't know maybe it's just me
Something tells me there's more to see
I don't ever wanna say goodbye
There's no reason just makes me cry
To see you walk away
Makes me wonder what to say

Differently the same

How do you say goodbye to your wife?
Just like saying goodbye to my life
So remember when you said goodbye
You asked me why I didn't cry
That was because I was short of breathe
Never felt so close to death
I don't ever wanna go through that again
Ah no my friend
