Sleeping Good Tonight

Donavon Frankenreiter

My old friend told me and it almost stuck
He said I think you think too much
I was never one to take a hint
I moved on years passed
I might have cracked that code at last
Yea Jimmy might have made a dent

But I'm done running, tripping on my feet
Yeah I'm done jumping, in every hoop in front of me
And the world, she might, wanna pick a fight
But I'll be sleeping good tonight ....

No one tells you when you grow up big
What broken kind of place it is
Yea still you gonna figure out
I wrestle with it too much still
I aint saying that the rain aint real
It's all that I could do for now

But I'm done running, tripping on my feet
Yeah I'm done jumping, in every hoop in front of me
And the world, she might, wanna pick a fight
But I'll be sleeping good tonight ....
But I'll be sleeping ... don't wanna wake up till it's light
Nothing's gonna shake me ... I'll be sleeping good tonight

There's always gonna be some hurt
Bad things happen that you don't deserve
Stop thinking that it's all there is
Someone's got it all worked out
Step up son, speak up loud ... you can spare us all from this

But I'm done running, tripping on my feet
Yeah I'm done jumping, in every hoop in front of me
And the world, she might, wanna pick a fight
But I'll be sleeping good tonight ...
But I'm done running, tripping on my feet
Yeah I'm done jumping, in every hoop in front of me
And the world, she might, wanna pick a fight

But I'll be sleeping good tonight ....
And I'll be sleeping good tonight ....
And I'll be sleeping good tonight ....
