

Woman

Donavon Frankenreiter

I lost the will to say what's on my mind,
Can you help me out this time?
It's been easy losing sight of what's around.
I feel so lost, till' my feet hit the ground.
Don't be a fool woman, I'm in love with you.
I suffocate my mind, with all your thoughts.
Remember what I learned, and I've been taught.
