

Blue

Dondria

I need a tissue 'cause I got issues with you right now
I been sitting here for hours tryna figure this out
You don't want me anymore that's clear
But I can't seem to put you in my rear view

I ask you "what are we?" and you say you don't know
Well, at this point it's looking better if I'm just on my own
If you don't want me kick me to the curb
'Cause it might just take that for me to learn

Blue...

I really tried my best to love to hate you
My heart is cold from all you do
I'm over falling for them dudes like you
'Cause it's a nightmare me and you
Am I that easy to let go of?
True love ain't like this you don't have a clue
Seems the truth is really hard for you
So I'll walk away a different avenue

I told myself before I walk away I'd give my all
Even if I had to fall
Now I got to the point where there's nothing left to give
What you get, you ain't giving
Don't wanna say goodbye but I'm tired

Blue...

I really tried my best to love to hate you
My heart is cold from all you do
I'm over falling for them dudes like you
'Cause it's a nightmare me and you
Am I that easy to let go of?
True love ain't like this you don't have a clue
Seems the truth is really hard for you
So I'll walk away a different avenue

You don't see that you got issues
Wish you could learn to put yourself in my shoes

Blue...

I really tried my best to love to hate you
My heart is cold from all you do
I'm over falling for them dudes like you
'Cause it's a nightmare me and you

(True love ain't like this)
