Shattered

Dondria

I ain't even throwing shame
But I can't take the way
You did a nigga wrong

Thought you were the one
You in and outta love
You can never make up your mine
If it was what you wanted
You shoulda been honest
Honey

We ain't gotta go back and forth
You were now or never even really good
Know exactly what it was
But I still care for your boy
Can't believe that...

We're breaking up
Look what we've done
We can't turn back
If we want it
We're so far gone
So shattered now
That we're breaking up
So shattered

This broken heart shit is just a sign of weakness
Why you expecting me to pick up all the pieces
We made a mess of what shoulda been forever

So ain't no way
We could turn back time
My pride won't let it show
I'll admit it

I ain't tryna gonna back and forth
No, I can't believe that we're really done
You were here but now you're gone, gone
But I still care for you girl
Can't believe that...

We're breaking up
Look what we've done
We can't turn back
If we want it
We're so far gone
So shattered now
That we're breaking up
So shattered

I saw the end all the way in the beginning
It's so sad to know that we're finished
I'm moving on from [?]
Oh, babe you know that I can't...
Do this anymore

We're breaking up
Look what we've done
If we want it
We're so far gone
That we're breaking up
So shattered
